"our future may lie
beyond our vision,
but it is not completely beyond our control.

it is the shaping impulse of america
that neither fate nor nature nor the irresistible tides of history

but the work of our own hands

. . . will determine our destiny.

there is pride in that,
but there is also experience and truth.

in any event,
it is the only way we can live."

"the future does not belong to those who are content with today, . . .
timid and fearful in the face of new ideas and bold projects.

rather it will belong to those who can blend vision, reason, and courage in a personal commitment to the ideals and great enterprises of american society.”

there is the temptation to follow

Sister Aquinas, O.P.:
 Physics, Mechanical Drawing, Future Physicians, Guidance.

The guidance department this year is directed by Sister Aquinas, O.P. Assistant counselors comprising the staff are Sister Monica, Mr. Cistone, and Mr. Vallecorsa. The purpose of guidance counseling is to aid the students in overcoming problems which they confront in their school life. Throughout the year, students seek the advice of guidance counselors concerning a variety of problems, ranging from scheduling the next year's subjects to processing college applications.

The guidance counselors are available for the benefit of the students. Appointments for interviews can be arranged at the convenience of the student and his particular counselor. Counseling provides opportunities for every student to become more aware of himself and the advantages of his environment.

Freshman firsts—football games, cheer rallies, gym classes, locks (backwards, of course)—welcome new Frosh.

Meeting new teachers—usually a different one for each subject—is an entirely new experience. Mr. Cryder's jokes for the musically inclined ... memorizing bones ... and 2nd period "singing aisle" ... a variety of sports offered in gym class. World history, math, religion, and a language stretch the days out.

Lockers can be tricky, too, if they're new—and if some joker put it on the other way around. Freshies celebrate birthdays at noon, and at the last cheer rally "Battle Cry" could actually be heard from their corner.

There's an old legend you may have heard;
It's told throughout the countryside.
And though it may sound a little absurd,
It concerns the story of Irish pride.

Now it seems a certain Junior class Whose place was at St. V. High, Possessed a spirit so unsurpassed
They say 'twill never die.

For this was a class with a lot of class,
A class that stuck together,
An uproarious bunch of Irishmen,
No matter what the weather.

'Tis a mystery from whence this spirit came;
No one really knows for sure;
But it gave St. Vincent an emerald name Which, like the spirit, will always endure.

a blending of rain, beauty, and victory makes homecoming '68 an irish success

The annual Fall Homecoming festivities combine the beautiful and the beastly, and 1968 was no exception. The game, held at Green Street Stadium on October 25, proved to be another Irish victory over previously undefeated Dayton Alter. Braving tears and laughter, mud and majesty, the Irish crowned Kathy Strecker Homecoming Queen 1968. The court, elected by

D. Rzasa carries out the chief function of NHS by tutoring A. Buchanan.

The main function of student council is acting as a mediator between the students and the faculty. The list of their responsibilities extends beyond that point. Before school begins they organize orientation days and lock distribution.

During the year they set up the school calendar and reorganize all clubs. The jukebox was a triumph for Student Council as was the establishment of a new policy for the selection of a homecoming court. Student Council has shown they possess qualities necessary for success.

Many of St. V.'s top scholars are members of NHS. Nominees must have a minimum scholastic average of 3 point, and a teacher recommendation. The largest social activity undertaken was a dance to finance a permanent honor roll.

Sporting new uniforms, majorettes M. Lavery, L. LaMonica, Captain Terry Roten, M. Lewellen, and L. Scarpellini spirited the Irish "when the saints came marching in."

Leading the way to Irish tradition and pride in music is the continual work of the band, chorus, majorettes, and Modern Music Masters. New uniforms, band camp, cheer rallies, concerts, basketball and football games mingle with the hard work involved in learning and appreciating music. Daily these groups encounter a variety of challenging responsibilities which include the learning of fresh new songs and dances, contacting musical groups for cultural entertainment, and arranging performances. "The Music Master," performed by the Piccolo Opera Company, delighted the students this year. Mr. Cryder co-ordinates the interest and talents of all the musical groups at St. Vincent.

we've got the coach, we've got the team;

Experience, depth, and spirit were the assets of the 1969 Fighting Irish Football Team. Over twenty experienced seniors and juniors were prepared to play as the season began. Co-captains Jerry Engler and Ron Greene led one of the best St. Vincent teams in recent years. The defense, built around All-City, found Joe D'Andrea at tackle, Tom Matuschak at end, Warren Sharpp at linebacker—all were first team—and Skip Knight at end (Second-Team). They held ten opponents to an average of 8.6 points per game. Larry Graf and Pat Endress (first-team) and Ron Greene (second-team) were the All-City choices.

The Irish opened the season with a loss to Cleveland's Cathedral Latin, but rebounded with victories over East, Central, and Barberton. Losses to Garfield and Niles gave signs of a mediocre season, but the season ended with four wins. After victories over eighth-ranked Dayton-Alter and Dayton power Dunbar, the Irish called themselves "Dayton City Champs." In the Dunbar game the promising career of Pat Endress was cut short when injury resulted in the loss of one of his kidneys.

Fill-in quarterback Ed Mertzweiller, aided by the passing of Warren Sharpp, led the Irish to a 14-6 win over Hoban.

The 1969 wrestling season was not one to be forgotten. This was the year that the five senior co-captains, Don Smith, Mike Mesek, Tom Sloan, Mike Trecaso, and Larry Graf combined for a 42-6-1 record. This was the season when Larry Graf, Mike Mesek, and Tom Sloan went All-City, when Larry Graf and Mike Mesek lettered for their third year on the varsity, and when the seniors never lost at home! The Most Valuable Wrestlers this year were Larry Graf, and Mark DiFeo. Don Smith, Tom Sloan, Mike Trecaso, and Mike Mesek received Most Improved Awards.

Kelly and Dzuris make a scrambling twosome in this panic-stricken fight at the Hoban game.

"What happened to the ball?" exclaim members of Hoban and St. V.

When the Irish opened the '68-'69 basketball season with losses to North and Barberton, doubts arose about the rebirth of St. V. A victory the next week over Canton Central Catholic began a six game winning streak which took St. V. into the Beacon Journal's "top ten" poll for the first time in recent years. Victories were scored over South, Hoban, Buchtel, Kent Roosevelt, and Mansfield St. Peter. A strong, fast Central team snapped the winning streak. The Irish slowed Central's fast break with steady rebounding, but were outscored by the '69 District Champions.

In the second half of the season, the Irish stood 6-3, beating Hoban a second time, but suffering a disastrous weekend with losses to Cuyahoga Falls and Firestone, both District powers. A nervous St. V. team lost its first tournament game to Barberton.

Junior Tom Kelly led in scoring and rebounding. Dave Ochsenhirt placed second in both departments. Kelly was named to the All-City second team and received an All-District Honorable Mention. "Ox" received an All-City mention.

The determination of the seniors on the squad, coupled with coach Tim Smith's tireless efforts to develop and perfect skill won credit for the team.
